Summary: A story of the love between "a Sly fox and a Dumb bunny" and the adventures they have together.

1. A Bizarre relationship

Three years after Nick Wilde was recruited into the Zootopia police force Nick had finally got the guts to ask Judy Hopps out on a date. Nick tapped Judy on the shoulder trying to get her attention "huh, oh hey Nick what can I help you with?" asked Judy "Well, um that's just it this might sound weird since this has never happened before butâ€¦" Nick said nervously "Wh- what is it?" asked Judy with a worried expression "Will you go on a date with me?" Nick said quickly thinking the worse possible scenario "Ofâ€¦Courseâ€¦I'll go..on â€¦a..dateâ€¦withâ€¦you." Judy jokingly said "No but for real yes I will!" said Judy with excitement on her face. "Yes, oh thank goodness I was worried there for a second." Said Nick in relief "Although you know there has been no such thing as interspecies relationships beforeâ€¦so we'll be the first." Said Judy "Yep, isn't this wonderful?!" said Nick. So that night after their cop duties they went to a fancy restraint run by Cheetahs. "What will you two be having tonight?" asked the waitress "We want the blueberry and carrot surprise with two mixed berry saladsâ€¦is that alright with you Nick?" asked Judy quickly "Yesâ€¦yes it is." Said Nick "Will that be all?" she asked "Yes, thank you." Said Judy. After the dinner they said their goodbyes and wished each other goodnight then parted ways. When Judy got to her apartment she fell onto her bed with a huge smile on her face and took one faint sigh trying to take it all in, thinking this was all just a wonderful dream. Back at the office the next morning both Nick and Judy they sat next to each other waiting for Chief Bogo to assign them their tasks, Chief Bogo walked in just to find Nick whispering to Judy "Was that real last night?" Nick whispered to Judy "Yepâ€¦Nickâ€¦NICK" said Judy urgently (coughing) Bogo looked at Nick with a stern face "Well, yes today we have an assignment that involves a break out. One of the criminals who was behind bringing the wild out of the predators in Zootopia has escaped." Said Bogo "Oh no!" said Judy "Yes it's the notorious Bellwether." Said Bogo Nick kept thinking about last night while Judy was worried for Nick thinking since they had put her in the Zootopian prison that they'd be target number one, after the meeting Judy pulled Nick aside "Judy, what the heck what are you doing?" asked Nick confused "Listen we can't do this on our own she'll be after us first." Judy said concerned. Nick just looked at her "What do you mean? "asked Nick "Remember we were the ones who put her there, we need to stay low maybe even go back to my place in the Bunnyburrowsâ€¦hey and that way my dad will get to see my new boyfriend." Said urgently nervous "Pfft..we took her down once we can do it again." Nick said with confidence "That's what you think but the pods have been modified and are more advanced." Said a voice in the shadows the next thing they knew was that Judy had jumped and knocked Nick out of the way of a pod but in the process she got hit instead "Well, I guess that could doâ€¦now it's you against your new girlfriend." Said the voice and out came Bellwether with a notorious smirk of evilness on her face Nick looked frightened when he saw her but looked back at Judy to see if she was ok so he slowly crept towards her but once he got to her and reached his hand to her "J-j-Judy." Nick said scared then all of sudden she had quickly turned around and she was snarly and was turned to a raging and wild bunny.

He was scared for his life and had no idea what to do so he did the only thing he knew what to do he went to the hospital "Do you all still have any of the antidote for the pods that made predators run wild" asked Nick urgently looking back behind him every couple seconds "Yes, why do you ask?" said the nurse "Bellwether is back and has advanced the pods so we need to somehow do the same with the cure before it's too late!" Nick said urgently

Nick went around and got on the train and left for Bunnyburrows to tell her parents about what had happened, once there he told all that had happened "So you're saying that my June bug has gone rampaging wild." Asked Stu Hopps "And you're her boyfriend? "asked Bonnie Hopps "Yes, yes, yes all that's true but I need some help." Said Nick "What can we do?" Stu asked confused "We need your Carrots and berries and I'll take them to the Zootopia hospital all of a sudden a rusty old truck pulled up "Hell, Mr. and Mrs. Hopps, who are you good sir?" asked Gideon "Hi, I'm Nickâ€¦Nick Wilde." Said Nick "Oh, yeah I've heard about you you're that fox that Judy keeps on talking about she loves you!" said Gideon with a smile. "Reallyâ€¦ummâ€¦ I mean I must hurry or all of zootopia will run wild!" said Nick "What do you need, whatever you need I can box it up and load and hall it over." Said Gideon. So they packed up as much as they could drove to the hospital and the doctors and scientist worked on a more advanced version of the previous cure by combing the previous cure with the berries, vegetables and other chemicals.

By the time they had it made most of Zootopia's population was wild so the next big idea Nick had was to go to the top of the science building where they shot of rockets but instead of rockets they would shoot the cure in one giant pod and have it explode all over Zootopia. Although others thought it wouldn't work they did it anyways and it surprisingly worked. Once it exploded and it spread everyone was ok once again. After seeing this Nick went out looking for Judy "Not another step fox or she'll go back!" Bellwether said all of a sudden Chief Bogo and some other officers got behind her and handcuffed her and put her in a more secure location which was Lionsmane a prison meant for the worst of the worst the prison was in the middle of the polar waters where no land touched.

When everything was finally over with Chief Bogo presented officer Nick Wilde, Gideon and Mr. and Mrs. Hopps with a medal of honor. Judy looked so ashamed and disappointed in herself "Nick I-â€¦" Nick stopped her before she said anything else. Nick then went in and gave her that kiss that they both had been waiting for since meeting each other, Judy's leg popped up at the sight of what was happening the kiss then broke "Listen it wasn't your fault that wasn't you because the Judy Hopps I know is a smart, fast thinking, loving, kind and beautiful bunny." Said Nick smiling into her big beautiful purple eyes.

Chief Bogo then let them go but stopped the two for a second "Listen you two I believe both of you deserve a break after all the things you two have been through it's the least that I could do." Said Chief Bogo "Wh- what noâ€¦" said Judy "Trust me we'll be ok, go on you two love birds have some fun." Sai d Bogo.

2. The preposel

After a couple more dates and spending quality with each other, Judy was getting antsy and impatient she knew that Nick loved her but she was tired of waiting. So she took it into her own hands and picked out a ring not knowing once she got to her new house which she was sharing with Nick since they were together now, Nick was waiting for Judy at home to propose to her. Once home she saw Nick on his knee in front of the door "Will you marry me?" asked Nick "Took you long enough." Said Judy with a smile "What's that behind your back?" asked Nick curiously "Oh I was going to propose to you because I was getting impatient so I bought this." Judy showed him the ring "You are one Impatient bunnyâ€¦so I'm guessing that's a yes." Said Nick smiling she then jumped up and hugged him.

They later sat down on their couch eating "paw"sicles and going through their scrapbook of all the memories they had shared ever since meeting each other. They had many laughs when looking through the book. They never thought that this relationship would take them this far and for them to be the first interspecies couple was astonishing. They spent a little bit more time with each other before making wedding plans. Later that night they went out on the town and took a train to tell Judy's parents the news. Before they had left they called Judy's parents to see if they could have dinner with them at their house and so they agreed to let them come. Once they had arrived they went in and sat down at the table where there was a variety of foods all vegie and berry related of course "Umâ€¦mom, dad me and Nick have something we want to tell youâ€¦" said Judy grinning "â€¦Oh what is it?" asked her mother "We're getting married!" Judy said with all the excitement she has been building up. The parents were in shock of this they'd never thought of this happening but the only thing that mattered at this point was seeing their daughter happy they then put on a huge smile and congratulated them.

They both hugged them "That's wonderful sweetie, have you picked out the date and do you have a wedding gown?" asked Bonnie "No, I don't have a dress and we're still working on the date but since the wedding that Mr. Big put on for his daughter was so nice they had decided they'd say goodbye and go to his place and ask him who arranged his daughter's wedding. When they had walked out the door Stu ran to the closest phone and called Mr. Big "Hello." Said Mr. Big "Yes, Mr. Big this is Stu Hopps my daughter saved your daughter's life a few years back." Panicked Stu "Aww, yes how may I help you?" asked Mr. Big "My daughter is getting married to a fox and I feel a little uncomfortable about this." Said Stu "Listen if she is happy and he is happy just leave it alone, because I will take no part in whatever you're trying to make me do. Goodbye." Said Mr. Big then hung up.

He was nervous but she did seem happy. Back at Mr. Bosses house he had given them the business card of the person who put the wedding together. So they thanked and called him, they had set the date for the twenty-sixth of June of twenty-twenty, which was the current year at the time. When the guy had come they told him how they wanted it to look like. Judy had gotten a call from her mother "Hey mom, how are you?" asked Judy "I'm good, have you picked out a dress out yet?" asked Bonnie "No, why?" asked Judy "Because I want you to wear the one I wore at my wedding." She said sounding as if she was crying. Judy smiled "Sure mom I'll wear it." She said "Oh, thank you darling, now get back to work I know you must still have lots to do so bye." Said Bonnie "Bye mom." Judy said.

The next morning Judy and Nick had made the invites and invited all their closest friends and relatives that included their friends at the office, the Hopps family, Gideon Grey, Fru Fru, Mr. Big, Flash, the Mayor, Finnick and many others. So they sent them all out even one out to Gazelle asking her if she would perform at the rehearsal. So until the wedding they just walked around town enjoying their lives.

3. The job and the new additions

So on the day of the wedding the guest went to the church that was on the invite and got seated Flash sat next to his girlfriend Priscilla whom was the sloth that sat next to him at the DMV. Of course the bride and groom were separated having their beliefs saying if the bride and groom were to see each other before the wedding they'd have bad luck. Nick was getting ready with his best men Gideon Grey and Mr. Emmet Otterton. While Judy was getting ready with her bride's maids Fru Fru (Who just couldn't wait to get in a dress again that would be for an occasion such as this.), Mrs. Otterton. Nick grabbed his vows which he had wrote himself and headed for the church podium, he then stopped at the top and waited for a while then the music sounded the wedding had begun. The crowd stood up as they watched Judy Hopps soon to be Judy Wilde walk down the aisle. She walked up and stood up in front of Nick as the sheep said what needed to be said and they both said their "I, do's" they then kissed and they got in their car and drove to the reception which was in Tundratown.

They went to a local bar which sold vegie drinks and berry punch and shakes and once all them had arrived they saw that Gazelle was there "Are you two love birds ready? Well let's get ready to ROAR!" shouted Gazelle "This is a story, bout a lil bunny who was misunderstoodâ€¦this is a story a fox who know one thought he could be good, then these two went through a lot to get just where they are now, was it fate or a mistake that a predator and prey would end up to be mates, it was destiny â€¦meant to be destiny it was meant to be that these two no matter how unusual it seemed they were meant to beâ€¦." Continued Gazelle "I love you Judyâ€¦" said Nick "â€¦You said my nameâ€¦wait you know my name!" Judy said with excitement and a smile on her face "Of course I know your nameâ€¦" said Nick smiling "Awww, I love you too Nick "said Judy twirling his tie around and around.

Once home after the wedding Nick had Judy in his arms carrying her through the front door and put her on the couch and sat next to her, although they tried their hardest to watch a movie on NeyFlock they eventually fell asleep. The next morning was wonderful it was like any other day but just more loving since married "Here's your coffee dear." Said Judy "Thanks, honey." Said Nick giving her a big kiss before taking a sip. He picked up his brief case and Judy was confused "What's that?" asked Judy "Oh, I forgot to tell you Chief Bogo assigned me as an Z file case worker and you're my assistant." Said Nick "Wow, when do I start?" asked Judy "Well finish your frosted lakes at get dressed." Said Nick.

But what confused him was the face that she made when he had said this "What's wrong honey?" asked Nick "Well, um â€¦ ya know what forget the cereal I'll get dressed and I'll meet you at the car." Said Judy shakenly "Hmm, that seemed strangeâ€¦is she hiding something from meâ€¦NAH." thought Nick. "Ok, here I come!" shouted Judy from the stairs they both then got in the car and drove to the office and met up with Chief Bogo whom was standing in front of the door. "Listen both of you when you go in here, you'll see things that are wellâ€¦um natural so we have them here in the Z files which are things that are and may never be explained." Said Bogo

They both walked into a room filled with files and files of strange, weird and unknown stuff that were like Bogo said unexplainable. But this was their new department and really Nick didn't mind it since he is a sly and sneaky fox, so he obviously thought that he could get some answers for these files.

Nick then looked back and saw Judy was obviously in terrible pain "Judy, Judy what's wrong!" asked Nick worried for his wife. "Doâ€¦do you want a family?" grunted Judy trying to be somewhat funny "Yeah, why?" asked Nick "Well your l..l..lucky You're going to be a father." Said Judy Nick couldn't believe it Judy was pregnant with his kids but he then remembered that bunnies can have lots of bunny babies but he still was happy. "Oh my GOSH!" said Judy in antagonizing pain "Oh yeah, BOGO OR SOMEBODY!" yelled Nick "Yesâ€¦Oh my gosh call the medics." Hollered Bogo.

They finally made it to the hospital and while Nick waited in the waiting room the nurse finally came out "Nick Wilde" said the nurse "Yes ... yes, that's me!" stammered Nick the nurse took him to the room where Judy was holding two blue blankets and two pink blankets he couldn't believe it a father and they were beautiful this was the first interspecies hybrid babies ever in history. He then took his eyes off the kids and looked at his wife who was still holding the babies "What are we naming them?" asked Nick "What about Fawn and Faith for the girls and Mick and Buzz for the boysâ€¦what do you think?" said Judy "I like it." Said Nick

4. the Z files

Five years later the kids had grown and were now in first grade at the Zootopia elementary school they of course were made fun of since they had a tail and mouth like a fox and ears, height and paws like a bunny but they protected each other from all this because their mom and dad had taught them to stand up for each other. While the kids were at school Judy and Nick were working on Z file cases they kept going back to this one case though it was a picture of some species that they had never seen before and was never supposed to exist in this world supposedly since some of the information was marked out and said classified, they could never get any answers out of anyone. They didn't know what to do the picture looked as though this thing had five possible fingers and thumbs and that there were five of them even on the feet also they were hairless except for on the head they didn't have a tail neither, they did a little research but found nothing. They had a letter come in from an anonymous person it said: Dear new Z filers, there is nothing anywhere in Zootopia that will give you answers and even those who know will nothing. Meet me in Tundratown at Lionsmane prison.

They knew who this was but if she had information then she would be our only bet of getting answers. But right now they had to get off and get their kids from school, so they got in their minivan and drove to the school to pick them up. The giraffe who guides the parents into the building to get their children was there and guided them to their homeroom Mrs. Fru which was their Friendly possum friend Fru Fru who was Mr. Big's daughter. They walked up to her desk "Hey, Fru Fru where's the most beautiful children ever?" said Judy "Over their sweetie, they were so calm today and didn't let anyone get on their nerves." Said Mrs. Fru. They walked over to a desk where they were coloring "Here mommy we this for you!" shouted the girls with their beautiful sparkling toothy grin, "And we made this for you daddy!" shouted the boys also with a toothy grin. Judy and Nick then took the pictures and looked at them and looked back at their children and hugged them "We love you." Said Judy "We love you too mommy and daddy." Said Fawn and Mick in together at the same time nudging their siblings to say the same thing "We love you too." Said Buzz and Faith.

When they got home they had gotten a strange voice message from the anonymous person. "I'm getting tired of her, we will go get the information and leave, okay." Said Nick "No, Nick she turned me and most of Zootopia into raging animals twice well actually I was hit the second time around but still." Said Judy "Let's go in our room because the kids don't need to hear this." Whispered Nick to Judy they both walked in their bed room and talked it over "Listen she may be our only hope of finding out what this thing is." Said Nick concerned. Judy looked down worried and concerned for both of their safeties "Fine, we leave tomorrow after we drop off the kids at school and I'll have my parents watch them while we're out." Said Judy

The next morning after dropping off the kids they drove to tundratown and took a ship to lionsmane prison. They stepped onto the land and was checked by the polar police, once they had met up with Bellwether they sat down in a protected room so that Bellwether couldn't harm them "Well, well, well if it ain't Mr. and Mrs. Wilde, weird how you two haven't turned on each other yet." Said Bellwether sarcastically joking "Stop the stuff Bellwether, tell us what you know." Said Judy "I like the new hair and suits." Said Bellwether jokingly "Stop stalling tell us what you know about this!" said Judy getting upset.

Bellwether just smirked and took the picture "This is what you call a human, apparently a human roamed the planet earth for centuries they were many colors, shapes and sizes, another thing is they were taught at a very young age to do things even walk, as they get older they grow in size and spoke in different tonguesâ€¦" started Bellwether "â€¦Wait one how do you know all of this and two where did you get this information?" asked Nick very confused "His name is Little he lives in Oaky Oaks he has connections everywhere he has the information you need, take the last train at nine-thirty at night." Said Bellwether "Times up." Said the polar police bear in a raspy voice.

They got home after leaving Tundratown and found that the kids were put to bed as well as Judy's parents they both giggled a little at the sight, As they walked in their room and got their pajamas on they lied down in bed facing each other smiling "Nickâ€¦" said Judy quietly "Yesâ€¦" said Nick looking back at her "Do you think this is right I mean we have a family now?" said Judy worried "After this we'll go on a vacation I promise." Said Nick smiling.

5. The Escape from Zootopia

The next morning, they had traveled to Oaky Oaks on the last train Once their they saw a group of what looked like misfit school kids "Do you know where we can find a person named Little?" asked Nick curiously "You're looking at him. "said the Little chicken with glasses. Judy and Nicked looked at each other and laughed at the fact that he was referring to himself "Why are you laughing he's serious, if you want answers he's the man." Asked the ugly duck thing. They then stopped laughing seeing that they were serious "Wait he's the guy named Little?" asked Judy confused "Y-y-yeah he-he is the Little his full name is Chicken Little!" said Runt excitedly "Runt no and why are you acting so excited?" asked Abby the ugly duckling "Wait, Chicken Little like the sky is falling Chicken Little?" asked Judy "Ughâ€¦yes thanks runtâ€¦" Chicken Little grunted "And you have connections?" asked Nicked still confused.

Chicken Little then adjusted his glasses "Yesâ€¦yes I have connections my friends help me this is Runt he goes and contacts our friends from space, this is Fish him and Abby go around town to town recording everything on their cellphones and laptops, this is Foxy Loxy and goosey Loosey they have eyes in the sky." Said Chicken little pointing to each one of his friends "And this is my dad he helps me although I'm the head boss." Said Chicken Little. By this time Nick and Judy were so confused they were speechless so they just stared wide eyed. They then came back to their senses "Umâ€¦well What do you have on these so called humans." Asked Nick "This is all you need to know it contains their beliefs, customs, activities everything you name it but what is in here will disturb you and scare you that is if you believe any of it I for one thinks it's phooey but hey this is your case." Said Chicken Little handing them a big file "Thank you for helping us." Said Judy "You're welcome you may come to us for any other cases that you'll need help on." said Chicken Little's dad.

They then got back on the train and headed back towards Zootopia with the files to show Chief Bogo. When they arrived they headed straight towards the station "Chief Bogo we have answers on this one Z file case!" shouted Judy "Huh, oh Which case is it?" asked Bogo "These things their called humans." Said Judy "Reallyâ€¦well um let me just take that file." Said Bogo as Judy pulled back the file seeming unsure now if this was the right thing to do "Judy hand him the file." Said Nick "Listen to him hand me the â€¦ FILE" shouted Chief Bogo jumping towards Judy whom was still holding the file. She had no choice but to run for her life she grabbed Nick by the arm and ran out the door "Judy where are we going?!" asked Nick in pain because of her strong grip "Anywhere but here we're getting the kids and leaving Zootopia!" yelled Judy in panic.

They ran to the house grabbed the kids got on the train leaving their car, friends, family and memories behind. This Train would take them to a place off their planet but onto another they were going to earth not even knowing it. They had fallen asleep on the train but by the time they woke up they found themselves surrounded by the humans the learned about none of the humans noticed them except one little girl named Riley "Look Bunnies â€¦ and a Fox?" said Riley confused seeing that they were holding hand, were standing on two feet, had clothes, had kids and rings. This was all weird to her "What are you?" asked Riley "Uh, the real question is what are you?" asked Judy "Aahhh!" screamed the girl letting Fear take control "Maybe there nice let's ask." Said Joy smiling "Where do you come from because you certainly an animal from here?" asked Riley "Well, first off I'm Judy this is my husband Nick and our kids Fawn, Faith, Mick and Buzz and we're from a place called Zootopia." Said Judy trying her best to smile.

Riley was now really curious about them so she snuck them into her house up to her room "So Zootopia What's it like there?" asked Riley curiously "Zootopia is a land ruled by mammals there are many places connected to it is very peaceful." Said Judy "So, why'd you leave?" asked Riley "The chief at the police station wanted files that we had on humans and I had one of the tingles that I knew something was up." Said Judy nervously "Wait you had information on us AWESOME!" said Riley excitedly. "So, I guess you'll need somewhere to stayâ€¦but even though you are quite civilized you can't get a job or housing like humans maybe in Zootopia but not here I'm sorry guys." Riley said letting Saddness take over. "Oh, it's okay we'll find a way to live in this new environment." Said Judy disappointed.

Judy and Nick tried everything to live in this new world but nothing worked they had no choice but to go back to Riley because if they went back to Zootopia they knew they'd be considered wanted for files they had gotten for THEIR Z file report so they just went back to Riley and befriended her. Once at Riley's house they knocked at the door and Riley's mom answered "Hello? What are you?" asked Riley's mom "Long story now where's Riley" snapped Nick "Nick, sorry about that Hi I'm Judy this is my husband and these are my kids." Said Judy "Ohâ€¦um yeah well um she's upstairs but she's doing homeworkâ€¦or supposed to be" she said nervously laughing.

They made it up to Riley's room and saw that she was on her computer chatting with one of her friends "Hoh, hey hold on I'll be backâ€¦" said Riley "Homework hmm" smirked Judy "Um, well please don't tell my mom." panicked Riley "Don't worry we won't but we have a question for you." Said Nick "Sure, what is it?" asked Riley "We need a place to stay and since we're friends now could we â€¦" Judy started "YESSSS YES YES YES!" Riley said with excitement letting Joy take control.

So the rest of their time in this new world they were living with Riley and her family it was weird for all of them but they soon got used to it. Riley's parents had gotten Judy and Nick's kids into Riley's school with a little encouragement and convincing arguments, the other kids in the classes were freaked out but Riley kept them safe and protected from the bullies at her school. While Judy and Nick got jobs at the police station just like in Zootopia. They seemed to be adjusting to the world they now call home everyone else was now adjusting to them as well although it still felt like a nightmare to some but they soon got over it. Judy and Nick so forgot all about the Z files and Zootopia, and just focused on their new lives with new friends they call family.

6. Relief

Since being on earth and forgetting about Zootopia their true home, Judy still had this feeling something bad was about to happen she has had this feeling for a while now and she was right. Back in Zootopia Chief Bogo had made himself a mission to retrieve the file and capture Nick and Judy. Not knowing where they had gone he asked their closest friends and the only answers he got was that they were no longer in this world, this confused him. He looked for some information on how to get off this world and into another he then read that there was a train called the universal train that would take you anywhere, so when the chance came he took it.

When he had got on the train he started to tell the driver where to go but he already knew where he wanted to go "You want to find a bunny a fox and their kids right? Well I know them they asked me to take them to a place called earth and if you want them you'll have to go there as well, so I'll take you." Said the driver so Bogo took the trip to earth and once their unlike Judy, Nick and their kids that were unnoticed being so small and people distracted, Bogo was easily seen by people everyone notice this huge animal in a police uniform. They had just stopped and stared at him he just ignored this and started looking for any evidence or where bouts for these Zootopian "fugitives". Judy and Nick then got information from a fellow officer saying that there was a huge beast shouting "WHERE IS NICK AND JUDY WILDE?!" outside the station.

"We aren't safe here anymore we have to go." Said Judy in a panic "Honey, we have Riley and her family to protect us we'll just go through the back and go back to Riley's house and wait for them there ok." Said Nick trying to make sense just to calm his wife down. "Nick, you're making nonsense." Panicked Judy "Just do as I say we will go to the house and go up to Riley's room and wait 'til her, our kids and her parents arrive and we'll be safe ok." Nick said calmly.

Once they got home and everyone was there Nick and Judy explained everything that was now going on "Don't worry you two we'll keep you and your family safe, we'll do whatever it takes to keep you here and away from any trouble." Said Riley's dad "Thank you." said Judy relieved "Anything for a new friend." Said Riley's mom suddenly the door was knocking "I'll check to see who it is." Said Riley. Once she had opened the door and it was Bogo Riley quickly slammed the door "Who was it!" panicked Judy "Goâ€¦go up to my room â€¦NOW!" panicked

Riley Judy and her family ran for safety and as they made it half way up the steps unable to be seen the door burst open "WHERE ARE NICK AND JUDY WILDE!" shouted Bogo "Who?" asked the mom "I know there here, where are you hiding them?!" said Chief Bogo angrily "I don't know what you're talking about we're just a normal family with nothing to hide." Said the dad

Bogo then heard whispers and footsteps coming from above "So, you say that you're not hiding anything then why do I hear noises coming from the celling?" smirked Bogo "Rats, we have an infestation of rats also my computer is still on let me go turn it off." Said Riley trying to stay calm "That won't be necessary." Said Bogo "Okay, so you'll be leaving now right?" asked Riley "Yes, yes I'll leave have a good day." smirked Bogo he then left. Once they knew everything was safe that night they had dinner trying to forget recent events.

"We need to send him back to Zootopia and put into lionsmane prison with the other dangerous crazies." Said Judy "Lionsmane, what's that?" asked Riley "It's our version of Alcatraz "said Fawn "Oh." Said Riley. The next day the two were spotted by Bogo "NICK AND JUDY WILDE YO'RE COMING WITH ME BACK TO ZOOTOPIA!" shouted Bogo "Remember the plan." whispered Nick into Judy's ear the two ran and made a u-turn heading towards they were running so fast that once they had made it they were skidding but stooped quick enough that when Bogo reached them he couldn't stop he just kept skidding and suddenly skid right into the train. "This one need to go to Lionsmane and be locked up plus give this to the Zootopia police department that he needs to be removed and that they need a new chief." Said Nick "You got it." said the driver who turned out to be none other than Chicken Little.

Bogo was put in Lionsmane and was removed discharged from the police department and Clawhauser was made the new police Chief. When Nick and Judy got this news they were happy. They now knew Zootopia was safer now under Clawhauser's watch. Even though Bellwether and Bogo were now out of the picture they stayed on earth because this was now their home. Beside's they had made new friends that they could never leave, although Judy still had Chicken Little take gifts and letters to her family back at Bunnyburrows through the universal train and she'd always get something back.

7. Epilogue

Seven years later Riley and her family nor Nick, Judy and their family had no other problems they were just glad that everything was peaceful once more. Judy and her family would visit Zootopia every once and a while bringing Riley and her family along, the first time they went to Zootopia not only were the animals weirded out but Riley's parents were in awe as for Riley she was amazed and filled with of course Joy she loved the sight of this all animal world, but they'd always go back to earth because that was now their home.

Riley was now sixteen while Fawn, Faith, Buzz and Mick were fourteen and all them were in middle school Riley was in seventh grade and the others were in sixth grade but they barely had any same classes together which upset them. Judy quit being a cop to be a teacher at a high school while Nick stayed at the police station. Nick and Judy finally found themselves a place to stay and just so happens it was right next to Riley's house so they became neighbors once they had bought the house.

Although Mick and Buzz were animals and Riley was human Mick and Buzz had a secret crush on her but neither of them knew that the other liked her, Fawn and Faith of course knew this even though their brothers didn't know they knew and they didn't say. This was weird but their parents had always said love is love no matter the species.

In the end the families shared their memories with each other and lived their lives happily. They watched the world change their children grow and get married have kids while the parents stayed home retired growing old together this made all them happy because they knew this is what they were wanting all this timeâ€¦a place that they've dreamt of a place to call home and this was it and they cherished every bit of it.
